

4. TEMPERATURE.

4.1. Are these sentences right or wrong? In this case, write them correctly.

- We use a speedometer to measure temperature.
- Temperature measures the movement of the molecules.
- In the International System of Units, we use °C to measure the temperature.
- We can drop the temperature under the absolute zero.
- 373 K equals 37,3 °C
- We can rise the temperature over 1.000 °C.
- All thermometers use mercury to measure temperature

mercury thermometer